HUBBIE KEPT ACCURATE DIARY

For Two Years Albert H. Rogers Jotted Down Actions of His Wife.

WOULDN'T COOK XMAS DINNER

Long Bill of Particulars Filed in Divorce. Suit Entered in the District Court.

For two years Albert H. Rogers has apparently kept an accurate diary of the actions of his wife, Lucy Rogers, whom he is suing for divorce in thedistrict court on the grounds of crucity. His diary constitutes the larger part of his complaint and if there is a novement she made during the time which Rogers did not like it is not apparent from the allegations of the complaint. They were married Oct, 8, 1894, and he alieges that she has treated him cruelly during most of that time. She has called him vile names, has left their home several times, has refused to care for him while he was sick and has done numerouse acts which have caused plaintiff great morall suffering. tiff great mental suffering,

GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBER-LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Philips of Blarelay, Md., writes: 'I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl. Cotherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy when ever she has had a cold since she was two mouths old About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever.' This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

her attention to the fact that she must have got the wrong number, and started to explain; but was testily cut short by the caller, who said she guessed she knew what she wanted. So the operator rang up the saloon.

"Is the Sister Superior there?" asked the inquirer. The bar tender was paralyzed at the idea of the Sister Superior being around a saloon; and explained the nature of the connection. This made the woman so mad that she inamediately filed a complaint against the telephone operator, whom she claimed had tried to play a joke on her.

claimed had tried to play a joke on her.

Almost as regularly as the sun rolls around, some woman on the east side every Friday morning calls up the editorial rooms of the "News," and orders various and divers kinds of fish, When it is explained to her that while there may be suckers in the office, they are not for sale; she innocently inquires, "Why, is not this Booth's fish market?" A Tenton rang up the "News" yesterday, to ask, "Ish diss Schmidt's market?" Zend me sohme lifter right avay, queck. I vas payd for't lasht idigt." On being informed that just at present there was no liver on the hooks in the editorial department of the "News," the Teuton was much disgusted and hung up the re-guests of the Wilson cafe were last vening treated to a little moving picire show outside of the regular musical program. Just as dinner was at its height the chef of the kitchen and his neight the cher of the Ritchen and his whit cohorts, about 10 in number, had a mixup with an equal number of ebony-hand waiters, and for a few minutes oun dodging became an applied science. When the banner of pence again waved aloft alongside it flew the victory ensign of the chef, the questioning of whose authority had been responsible for the brief but spirited contest.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAINS
Among the troubles that beset mankind rheumatism is one of the most aggravating. "I suffered with it for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all druggists.
